Chinese Bandits Are in the Employ of Japanese.

How the Mikado's Men Treat the Wounded in Field.

Powers Are Getting Worried Over Breach of Neutrality.

United States Does Not Want to Increase War Zone.

Goes to the Bottom in Vicinity of Port Arthur.

Japanese Make Another Seizure in Vicinity of Che Foo.

Declaration That China Has Violated Neutrality.

Said to Have Been Driven Back by the Russians.

CHE FOO, August 19.—Major L. L. Seaman, a specialist in military surgery, who has seen much of the Japanese hospitals and who has been with the Manchus, or Chinese, bandits, near Mukden, has arrived at Che Foo. He consented to be interviewed and gave some interesting observations on the Japanese method of treating wounded men.

TREATING WOUNDS.

He says that the Japanese are giving proof of the benefits to be derived from the non-interference with wounds on the field, where they contain themselves with the application of first aid bandages and antiseptics, leaving the more serious work to be done in the hospitals at home. This course is followed except where there is danger of the wounded man bleeding to death, or where his condition is very precarious. The result of this practice has been that many men suffering from bullet wounds at the front are nearly well when they reach Japan.

MANY INJURED.

On one hospital ship returning to Japan from the front there were 2200 wounded men and there was not a single death on board during the trip. Three per cent will cover all the deaths among the wounded who have been returned to Japan after having received first aid treatment only. If the Japanese soldier is not killed outright the chances are that he will recover. His temperate habits and his plain and healthful diet of fish and rice, varied occasionally with meat, contribute much to his recovery.

Russian wounded captured by the Japanese have been treated in a similar manner and the recoveries among these men is scarcely less in proportion than among the Japanese.

A new complication has been discovered in the wounds sustained in this war, due to the extraordinary high speed of small caliber bullets, which produce aneurisms by their speed. Major Seaman saw twenty-seven operations performed for the relief of this new condition.

After having spent some time in Japan, Major Seaman, accompanied by Captain Charles T. Boyd of the Tenth United States Cavalry, was the guest of Chung-tzolin, a Chinese chief near Shantung, where the Manchus number ten thousand men. The major declares these men to be in the employ of the Japanese, who pay the infantry 15 taels a month and the cavalry 25 taels a month. There are many Japanese officers among these forces, who are used to harass the Russians.

WASHINGTON, August 19.—Coupled with the reported refusal of the Japanese government to release the Ryehiteini, seized in Che Foo harbor, it is thought that the seizure indicates that while the Japanese may not assert the right of seizure in the international port of Shanghai, they will not hesitate to attack and cut out any Russian ships that lie in Che Foo harbor, provided that they are not dismantled to the absolute satisfaction of the Japanese naval officials.

CHINESE NEUTRALITY.

Some apprehension has been expressed in other capitals that these apparent breaches of Chinese neutrality by Japan may extend to the land operations of the hostile armies. This feeling is not shared in Washington and although the officials will not make public the sources of their information on this point, there is reason to believe that they will have been assured by both Japan and Russia that there will be no extension of the war field beyond Manchuria and perhaps Korea, which constituted the original theatre.

The danger of a breach of neutrality so far as land operations are concerned is said to enter at a point on the border between Manchuria and Chinese Mongolia, which would naturally be the place where General Kuropatkin would seek to make his escape with his army in the event that the Japanese under Kuroki succeeded in executing the plan which is now afoot of surrounding him on the north, east and south, thus cutting him off from the Siberian railroad and his line of communication. Apprehensive of this movement, Yuan Shikai and Ma, the famous Chinese generals, with their foreign drilled troops, have concentrated a force of about 40,000 men in Mongolia near the border and it is feared that there may be a clash between these men and the Russian troops in the event of the retreat of the latter across the line.

TOKIO, August 19.—A Russian gunboat of the Otaviani type struck a mine and sank off Lanti promontory, the extreme southern point of the Kwangtung peninsula, on which Port Arthur is situated, at 3 o'clock on Thursday night.

The Otaviani is an armored gunboat of 1500 tons displacement, launched in 1894, and carries one nine-inch gun, one Pinch gun and ten quick-firing guns. She has two torpedo tubes, has a speed of fifteen knots and carries a crew of 142 men.

Grace M'Naughton's Friends Say She is a Kleptomaniac—The Prosecution.

ST. PETERSBURG, August 19.—5:35 p.m.—Later in the day the Admiralty received official information that Vice-Admiral Prince Ouktomsky's five battleships and protected cruiser Pallada are at Port Arthur.

The telegram received here from the Russian consul at Che Foo does not mention whether the vessels are damaged, and makes no reference to the report from Tokio that a gunboat of the type of the Otaviani had been sunk off the Lanti promontory owing to having collided with a mine.

CHICAGO, Cal., August 19.—Thomas A. Campbell of Eureka, stepped from a north-bound train this morning just before the train reached the depot and suffered injuries which will probably prove fatal. One vertebra of the spine was broken and he was otherwise internally injured.

Campbell has a wife and three children in Eureka. He is a member of I. O. O. F. Lodge of St. Marys, Mich., of Macabees of Eureka and of the Masonic order.

A BIG SALE OF CHOICE RESIDENCE LOTS

Sixty Fine Building Lots Near Telegraph Avenue to be Auctioned Off Tomorrow on the Grounds.

One of the most important real estate auctions ever held in Oakland will take place next Saturday, when A. J. Snyder, the Realty Bonds and Finance Co. and Richard J. Montgomery will sell sixty choice lots near Telegraph avenue, in Central Oakland, one of the most rapidly growing sections of the city. The sale will be at 2 o'clock p.m. on the grounds. The terms will be easy, 10 per cent deposit before required on the fall of the hammer. The title is perfect.

The property in question is most desirably located, and is especially choice in view of the improvement of Telegraph avenue and the Key Route car line to Piedmont avenue, affording quick transit to San Francisco. The lots are situated on Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, Fifty-first, Maple and Cherry streets and Shattuck avenue. None of them is more than three blocks from the Telegraph avenue car line, and all are within five minutes' walk of the Key Route ferry line, which runs a short distance to the south. The district is well sewered and the lots require no grading preparatory to building. They are within easy walk of Idera Park, and will be made doubly desirable by the projected improvement of Bushrod Park, a little further to the north.

The district in which these lots are situated is at present the center of the greatest building activity ever known in Oakland. All around substantial dwellings are going up and street improvements are being made. The rapid growth of population and the character of the improvements being made in the neighborhood are a sure guarantee that the property will speedily advance in value. A more inviting field for residence and investment cannot be found, for the lots are ready for the builder, the streets have been opened, and the rapid transit facilities are unsurpassed. It is only fifteen minutes ride either way to the business center of Oakland and the State University at Berkeley. It is only thirty minutes' ride to San Francisco, and the lots are directly in the path of the march of improvement. The contiguous property is being subdivided and built up, and streets graded and paved. The man who desires to secure a homestead on easy terms in one of the most desirable and progressive sections of the city, convenient of access to a splendid street car service, will find the offerings at this auction peculiarly attractive.

It is expected that a large crowd will attend the auction because of the extent and desirable character of the property to be sold. The excellent location and the ease with which it is reached are also drawing factors in a case of this kind. New Broadway, which is soon to be transformed into one of the finest thoroughfares in Oakland, runs two blocks east of the lots, and this fact enhances their value and attractiveness.

Messrs. Snyder and Montgomery and the Realty Bonds and Finance Company, who are offering the property for sale, will make every exertion to give all intending purchasers an equal opportunity to bid and to afford abundant facility to examine the lots and title. After purchase, ten days will be allowed for search. Maps and full particulars can be had of A. J. Snyder, 467 Ninth street; the Realty Bonds and Finance Company, 1172 Broadway, or Richard J. Montgomery, Fiftieth street and Telegraph avenue.

WHEAT FLURRY

MINNEAPOLIS, August 19.—Reports of rain all over the Northwest, making the crop situation already deplorable, worse than ever, caused a wild bull future at the opening of the wheat market today. The September option touched 11 1/2, while December went to 11 1/4 and May to 11 3/4.

Henry Butters will attend the horse show at Sacramento. He will leave with his crack horses Ginger, Commander, Edward VII and Capt. Jinks. They will be exhibited at the fair.

BOYCOTT SCHOOL BOARD

Architects Want to Tie
Up the Proposed Buildings.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 19.—The following communication has been sent to the Oakland Board of Education.

Resolutions adopted by San Francisco Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, August 18, 1904:

"Whereas, We, the San Francisco Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, a society interested in the development of architecture and art in the United States, did on the 20th day of July last adopt resolutions and resolutions called forth by a Notice to Architects issued by the Board of Education of the City of Oakland, California, in connection with a proposed competition for designs, plans, and specifications for new school buildings to be erected in said City of Oakland; and

"Whereas, The San Francisco Chapter of the American Institute of Architects did in said resolutions call the attention of said Board of Education to the fact that its Notice to Architects, as formulated, was alike detrimental to the interests of the City of Oakland and to the architectural profession; and

"Whereas, The said Board of Education did not avail itself of professional aid and advice, nor has it changed in any essential particular its Notice to Architects; and

"Whereas, The said Notice to Architects offers little of promise to the profession and cannot justify architects in taking part in a competition so conducted, in that it is calculated for and permits of favoritism and injustice; and

"Whereas, There is a recognized method for conducting competitions for the selection of an architect, which, if carried out in good faith, guarantees satisfactory results; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That, as in the opinion of this Chapter, an injustice is done the entire architectural profession, we advise all architects not to enter the said competition for new school houses for the City of Oakland; and be it further further

"Resolved, That participation in the said competition under the present program and Notice to Architects will be regarded by the San Francisco Chapter of the American Institute of Architects as unprofessional conduct; and be it further further

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Board of Education of the City of Oakland, to every certified architect in the State, and to each Chapter in the United States.

JAPS ARE ON THE HUNT

Searching for Two Missing Russian Vessels.

CHE FOO, August 19.—Persons who were observed on the coast this morning some miles east of Che Foo declare that the Japanese torpedo boat destroyers which entered this harbor at 5:30 this morning hoisted only one flag when they were going away.

A small merchantman was seen coming toward Che Foo, but when she perceived the destroyers she turned on her course. The destroyers passed this merchantman, apparently without noticing her, and she continued to follow the warships. The merchantman is thought to have been a pilot boat which brought news to the destroyers.

The naval attaches at the Japanese consulate here express the opinion that these Japanese destroyers were searching for the Russian cruisers Diana and Novik, which are now the only Russian warships not accounted for since the sortie from Port Arthur of August 10, or for some ship which may have escaped during the night from Port Arthur.

CHINA IS HELD RESPONSIBLE.

JAPANESE DOES NOT WANT RU-
SIAN WARSHIPS TO ESCAPE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Consul General Goodnow has cabled the State Department from Shanghai that the Chinese Tatolai there has reported against the claim of the Russian Consul General and decided that the torpedo boat destroyer now at that port must go out or disarm by the 20th instant, and that the cruiser must do likewise but on the 21st instant.

JAPANESE DEMAND.
SHANGHAI, Aug. 19.—Despite the Tatolai's decision to allow the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Grozovoi and the cruiser Askold to remain in port for what would be considered a reasonable length of time to make repairs, the Japanese Consul General made three demands today that the vessels either leave port or disarm.

The ships are carefully guarded by customs officers and lighters are waiting to coal the Askold.

Semi-official reports state that the Japanese fleet will make a demonstration outside the harbor on Tuesday. The neutral consuls believe the Japanese threat to seize the vessels is a bluff. A pacific end of the controversy is anticipated. The damage to the Askold is greater than was expected and cannot be repaired under three weeks.

BURGLAR MAKES GOOD HAUL

ONE MAN IS THOUGHT TO HAVE ROBBED TWO PLACES
LAST NIGHT.

L. J. Barnett, residing at 418 Twelfth street, reported to the police this morning that his rooms were entered last night and a suit case and lady's gold watch stolen. The thief operated during the absence of Barnett from his rooms, between 5 and 6 o'clock in the evening.

E. W. Condon, who rooms at 1155 Washington street, also reports that his apartments were burglarized. An alarm clock and other articles of minor value were taken.

It is thought by the police that both of the thefts were probably committed by the same man.

DEMOCRATS TO CALL ON PARKER.

ESOPUS, August 19.—The opening of the Democratic campaign at Rosemount, so far as a visit from political organizations is concerned, will take place tomorrow, when a delegation will arrive from Brooklyn, representing the Brooklyn Democratic Club and the Kings County Democratic Club. It is expected there will be about sixty men in the party.

FRESHIES WILL GIVE BATTLE

Refuse to Obey Order Not to Smoke or Sit on Steps.

BERKELEY, August 19.—At a meeting of the sophomore and junior classes at the University today rules regulating the conduct of the freshmen, that are expected to precipitate an open conflict before the week is out, were passed.

Among other things, the upper classmen have decided that the freshmen are not to smoke pipes on the campus, sit on the North Hall steps or wear corduroy trousers.

The freshmen are determined to violate these regulations, and if they do a rush will follow.

TO STEAL THOUSAND VALISES

Thief Had Record of Two Hundred When Arrested.

Charles Lewis, whose sole aim in life seems to be stealing valises, is thought by the police to be an escapee from the Ukiah asylum for the insane. Lewis is being held pending an investigation. He says he must steal 1000 valises. He has already reached the 200 mark and is complaining to the officials of the city prison that while in serving a long term of years in the prison he has not been able to get any valises.

Lewis is held to be responsible for a long series of room burglaries in Oakland.

EASTERN MEN ARE COMING TO THE WEST.

Messrs. Barnhart and Swasey of San Francisco have secured the services of Mr. Henry C. Longhurst to take charge of their literary and business department. Mr. Longhurst has for several years had charge of the literary department of the Charles H. Fuller Advertising Agency of Chicago and is certainly an acquisition to the Barnhart and Swasey Agency.

In addition to his experience in the Fuller Agency, Mr. Longhurst has filled successful engagements with a number of Eastern advertisers and should, therefore, be able to put his Eastern ideas to good account in serving the clients of Barnhart and Swasey.

Really good advertising men are not as plentiful as is generally supposed and Barnhart and Swasey are to be congratulated in acquiring the services of Mr. Longhurst. At the same time it shows a progressive spirit on the part of the agency that should not be lost sight of by advertisers.

JAPANESE SEIZE A BIG STEAMER.

WASHINGTON, August 19.—The State Department has received a cablegram from Che Foo, dated today, the substance of which is as follows:

"This morning seven Japanese destroyers entered the harbor and met an unknown steamer entering, which they captured. Two Japanese cruisers are outside the harbor."

Textually the dispatch is as follows: CHE FOO, August 19.—This morning seven Japanese destroyers entered the harbor at Che Foo. Opposite the entrance they met an unknown steamer entering and took possession of her. There are two cruisers outside."

The dispatch is so worded as to leave in doubt one of the most important points connected with the seizure, namely, the exact spot at which it took place and whether without or within the three-mile limit. Naval officials familiar with the harbor of Che Foo state that there are two entrances from opposite directions, and it is inferred from the above dispatch that the Japanese squadron approached through one of these entrances to find the unknown steamer referred to coming through the other entrance. The impression here is that consequently the seizure took place within the Chinese territorial waters. The incident is regarded as an evidence of the Japanese naval officers to disregard niceties in dealing with this question of Chinese neutrality.

MUST NOW FIGHT OR DISARM

Russian Warships Are Ordered to Leave
Shanghai.

PARIS, August 19.—The French Minister at Tokio has not yet communicated to the Foreign Office the text of Russia's protest against the cutting out of the torpedo-boat destroyer Rysshtelini at Che Foo, the transmission of which has been delayed owing to the absence of Foreign Minister Delcasse.

The matter is not regarded as serious, international complications not being anticipated.

The report that the Japanese Consul at Shanghai has been ordered to inform China that she will be held responsible for the disarmament of the Askold and Grozovoi is officially confirmed.

Well-informed circles have no doubt that China will fulfill her obligations and they considered the presence of numerous warships of various nationalities at Shanghai is sufficient guarantee that Japan will not attempt to violate the neutrality of the port.

I. LANDSBERGER'S WILL FILED.

PROPERTY GOES TO THE WIDOW
DURING HER LIFE.
TIME.

The will of the late Isidore Landsberger of 1615 San Jose avenue, Alameda, was filed for probate this morning by his widow, Martha S. and his son Henry M. Landsberger. The estate consists of real and personal property with interests in a commission business conducted under the firm of Landsberger and Sons at 123 California street, San Francisco. The value of the property is said to be unknown but exceeds the value of $10,000 and will probably reach between $50,000 and $75,000.

By the will the deceased the entire estate is left to the widow, in consideration of the fact that by a will of the same date she leaves all of the estate at her death to the children, Henry, Sophie, Little Louis, Florence, Albert and Julius, share and share alike. Any advance made by her to any of them prior to her death to be deducted out of their share when the estate is finally distributed.

The heirs of Mrs. Martha S. Landsberger are living with her at the home at 1615 San Jose avenue, Elizabeth R. Florence I. Albert H., and Julius A. Landsberger while the other children are Henry M. Landsberger, 1421 San Antonio avenue, Alameda, Sophie I. Wright, wife of George T. Wright, 1421 San Antonio avenue and Louis I. Landsberger of Ross Station, Marin county.

REGARDING THE NEW W. O. BANK.

Editor TRIBUNE:—In regard to the statement in your valued paper of the 18th inst., by the Security Bank and Trust Company, that the Finance and Securities Company had "in thing whatever to do" with the organization of the Security Bank and Trust Company, we desire to state that they are technically correct, but the facts are that Naph B. Greensfelder, the present president of the Finance and Securities Company, with the vigorous aid of A. F. Haraszthy, Chas. E. Snook, and E. F. Vandercreek, organized and organized the bank now known as the Security Bank and Trust Company, although the original charter was under the name of the "Athenian Bank."

We regret exceedingly that the wording of the notice of the West Oakland Bank seems to give the impression that the Security Bank and Trust Company was connected with the enterprise.

Thanks to the generous support of the West Oakland people the West Oakland Bank and Trust Company will speedily require no further aid in its organization.

Meanwhile we sincerely appreciate the good wishes of the Security Bank and Trust Company which we most heartily reciprocate.

Patrick Lynch, a teamster residing at 83 Seventeenth street, came to his death last night through acute alcoholism. He was found in the rear of his residence at an early hour this morning by Mrs. Mary E. Wilson, a neighbor.

During the earlier hours of the night Lynch had been drinking heavily and went home in an intoxicated condition. He did not attempt to go into the house but lay down on the ground in the rear of the premises. For an hour or more before he died the deceased groaned heavily, as if in great pain.

The deceased has a wife who is at present residing in San Francisco. He was sixty years of age.

GOSSIP OF THE WEEKLY PAPERS

Charley Shortridge as a Campaigner —The Newport Scandal Mongers —About Gladys Unger.

The transport Sheridan arrived during the week and with it came the usual stories of graft and scandal which now accompany the army, as matters of course, in all its movements. It is said that four ladies of easy virtue were passengers on the steamer although it is well known that passage on a transport is restricted, presumably to the wives and members of the families of army officers and government officials. It is not clear in what capacity the entertaining parties were smuggled aboard the ship. Probably they went as the wives of some of the gay young lieutenants. Two of the latter entertained themselves by dancing in the moonlight, clad only in their pajamas. A couple of the women, it is said, joined in the revel, attired in their nightgowns. In brief, the army officers had a high old time all the way from Manila. So much for the scandalous side of the trip. The other side of the picture is illustrative of the grafting that has run through the various branches of the transport service ever since the opening of the Spanish war. On the Sheridan, for instance, according to the charge made, the men who had control of the berths, instead of giving them to non-commissioned officers, sold them off for all they could get. It was but a small graft—some what similar to that of an usher at a circus or a prize fight—but it was worked for all it was worth and seems to have caused no comment except from a few non-coms, who were required to pay for sleeping quarters to which they were entitled free by the rules of the service. The surprising thing is that this petty graft should be countenanced by the officers in command. Of course, they may say they knew nothing about it. But that is no excuse. They should know about it. If they do not, they are incompetent; if they do, they are incompetent; if they do, they are corrupt. In either event, they should be dismissed from the service.—News Letter.

POKER AND STATESMANSHIP.
Charley Shortridge is in a jubilant mood these days, having been assured that he is the organizing candidate for Congress in the Fifth district. He was fearful for a time of the opposition of the Hayes Brothers of San Jose but they have been persuaded that it would be to their interest to assume a less aggressive attitude. Charley Shortridge is a hold-over Senator and an uncompromising politician and it is not good politics to rub him the wrong way. He proved his ability as a campaigner when he ran for the Senate as an independent candidate and scooped at the Hayes brothers. They have been eager for revenge ever since. He shifted his residence to the northern end of the Fifth Congressional district and pulled the wires from a point beyond the reach of the Hayes influence. Though he is now a San Franciscoan the people of the Santa Clara valley look upon him as a political exile and they still claim him. They are confident that he will become an influential Congressman, because he is an expert poker player. Few men ever achieve any great influence in Washington until they prove themselves capable of holding their own in one of the big poker games that engross the attention of the leading statesmen. It is more difficult to break into one of those big games than it is to confound the Hayes brothers of San Jose, but Charley Shortridge promises to open a jack pot within a week after he takes his seat. It was as a poker player by the way, that Victor Metcalf first won recognition in Washington, and Tim Geary says that unless a man is an expert at the great American pastime he should keep out of the halls of legislation in Washington.—Town Talk.

NEWPORT SCANDAL-MONGERS.
It usually affords the American dramatic censor of morals, familiarly known as the dramatic critic of some daily paper, great pleasure to sneer at the decadent aristocrats of London, with whom we have become acquainted through the medium of the drama. We accept them as types of a caste and point to them as evidence of the demoralization of British society. We do not stop to think that, perhaps, the same species is to be found in this country, equally exalted and conspicuous. A new play by Henry Arthur Jones was produced in this city last week, and we found that it exploited some very unpleasant characters, among them being those familiar individuals who revel in the tearing of a woman's reputation to tatters. It was shocking to learn that such malevolent people should have the entire to cultured society. While the play was in its first week, the despatches from New York told of a great scandal in high society. Mrs. Ogden Goetz had been robbed of valuable jewels, and the affair was shrouded in mystery. The newspapers broadly hinted that the lady's most intimate gentleman friend knew more about the robbery than he cared to tell, and that it was to the interest of the lady to protect him. She told a story about finding the jewels in her safe, and thereupon Mrs. Sturges, a leader of the Four Hundred, remarked: "It's all bosh. The jewels were not found in the way described." Other women said, "Mrs. Fish knows." Mrs. Fish is not a British aristocrat. She is a representative of American high-toned society, of which the other women who say that "she knows" are members. How very like unto Mrs. Taverer of "Joseph and the Coat of Many Colours" is she. The scandal in which their friend, Mrs. Goetz, is involved, is too good to be permitted to blow over. Her plausible explanation, like that of Sir Joseph, is too tame to suit the scandal-mongers. The more obvious conclusion regarding the robbery, reflecting as it does on their friend, is the one to which they are wedded.—Town Talk.

AN INTERNATIONAL SENSATION.
From the East the story comes to me by mail that a California girl is likely to figure in a matrimonial complication which will attain the magnitude of an international sensation. The girl is Miss Gladys Unger, daughter of Frank Unger, who for many years was a shining light of the Bohemian Club of San Francisco, and the bosom friend and companion of Harry Gillig in his wanderings around the world with his former wife, whom he married after she had been divorced from Porter Ashbo. Frank Unger was in his day the most popular man in California, and was possessed of many talents and great personal magnetism. His daughter Gladys inherits those interesting traits. She is very intellectual, and among other things has written a play which has been well spoken of. She was born here, but has lived many years abroad with her mother. It appears that she has engaged the admiration of Multinational Yerkess to a dangerous degree, which is not very wonderful, as the girl is attractive enough to interest a billionaire deeply. So far everything appears to have been purely platonic in the relations of the rich American man of affairs and this gifted young Californienne, but it appears that Mrs. Yerkess is not disposed to regard her husband's affections with undisturbed equanimity. Since the production of Miss Unger's play by one of the famous London actors her fame has become greater, and necessarily all her movements have become more matters of general interest. Mr. Yerkess' great undertakings in the way of street railroads in London have also placed him prominently in public view, so that nothing is more natural than that the friendship of these two conspicuous people should cause the tongues of the gossips to wag merrily and excitedly. It is it that the talk should have a disturbing influence upon the Yerkess household, especially as Mrs. Yerkess is no longer in the heyday of her youth. She was a very handsome girl, they say, when Mr. Yerkess, who was not then so rich, married her. Added years have the opposite effect on a woman's beauty to what added millions have on a man's notoriety, so while Mr. Yerkess has been gaining fame in the capitals of Europe the partner of his joys and sorrows has been losing some of the charms which endeared her to him in the long ago. She was Yerkess' second wife, he having divorced his first.—The Wasp.

TROUBLES NEVER COME SINGLY.
Mrs. Culver, the daughter of Senator Clark, is declared by a Washington journal to be giving her family much concern by her determination to contract a marriage alliance with her butler. If she did something of that sort, it would not be extraordinary in New York, as wealthy women in Gotham have married their servants. Last year a multi-millionaire widow of sixty-five eloped with a hackman who was in the habit of driving her around town on shopping expeditions. Mrs. Culver has more than her share of notoriety, as not long ago the wife of a prominent Greek resident of New York made her the co-respondent in a divorce suit that obtained wide publicity. The possession of great riches is not always a guarantee against trouble.—The Wasp.

SUGGESTS HIS EXPULSION.
The Washington Mirror, which was the first journal in America to announce that Senator Clark had a hidden chapter in his life that would soon be reached, and which evidently was posted on all the details of the Senatorial romance in Paris and Tunis, now suggests that the United States Senate should expel him. It says the dignity of the Senate requires it; that "if, as now seems assured, learned by the passage of three years, the American unsavory details and private misadventures there is the greater urgency for summary measures. Even if Senator Clark clears himself, and incidentally the woman he says he married three years ago, of all imputations except lacking common sense, he stands in an unenviable light before the public. The people like a robust man, who can marry the woman he loves against worldly counsel and selfish motives and can proclaim the fact, no matter who relishes it." The latest development in Washington with regard to the secret marriage is that the young Mrs. Clark had a husband before the immensely rich Senator took her to wife. The name of the alleged first husband was Bricker. He was a young man of Butte. As the story runs, Senator Clark founded a college for young women in Butte, and put the two La Chapelle girls in the institution. Bricker was then engaged to the elder Miss La Chapelle. It is said, and seems very plausible, that the Senator, very jealous over the Senator's attentions to the young lady, matters were finally straightened out, it is alleged, by Senator Clark's payment of $100,000 to Bricker, on which sum he and Miss La Chapelle set up housekeeping in Paris, and were known as man and wife to the musical circles in which they moved. It is also said in Washington that Senator Clark's enemies are very anxious to get in touch with this alleged ex-husband of Mrs. Clark. No doubt they will make all the trouble they can for him.—The Wasp.

THE COMING OF THE TOWERS.
Oakland society people are anxiously waiting for Ambassador and Mrs. Charlene Tower to make their appearance across the bay. Though it has been announced several times of late that they were coming, nobody has any definite information on the subject. Though Mrs. Tower is very fond of her Oakland home, it is thought that she might possibly find so many attractions in the Eastern social whirl that she will not have time to come to the Coast. She has entertained as many visiting Americans in St. Petersburg and Berlin that she has friends all over the country eager for an opportunity to reciprocate. At all her functions attended by royalty, "American beauties have graced the occasion." Mrs. Tower dresses magnificently and in exquisite taste. Her jewels are famous at court, and she wears what the best authorities describe as "just enough."—Town Talk.

NEW DEPARTMENT FOR LOCAL HOUSE.

Head to Foot Outfitters Now Ready for the Public.

The last stroke was given by carpenters in the remodeling of Messmer-Smith's store last evening in preparation for the great event to-morrow, when that well-known firm adds another department to its extensive business.

The latest evidence of success and growth is the addition of a ready-to-wear stock of men's clothing, a stock that is a credit to any firm catering to the best in wearing apparel. The brand of goods carried are the well-known Washington Brand, famous throughout large Eastern cities because of their clever shapes and faultless workmanship. One advantage this firm will have in appealing to the best dressers of this city is the fact that this season's ordered made to latest fall patterns, which insure the dressy man an up-to-the-minute habit.

It has been but a few months since the Messmer-Smith Company have branched out from an exclusive shoe house to a house carrying men's furnishings goods. This firm, consisting of Mr. A. J. Messmer and E. A. Smith, are among the most prosperous and progressive of our merchants and have one of the best business locations in the city.

Considerable credit is due the success of the men's apparel department to Mr. E. J. Murphy, the manager, who has been identified with the largest clothing concerns on the Coast, and at different times with M. J. Keller and J. T. Moran. The new department is thrown open to the public to-morrow evening.

DEGENERATE SENT TO PRISON.
ALAMEDA, August 19.—George Barlow, aged 42 years, a vicious degenerate, was arrested this morning by Detective Brown on Minuteman street, within an hour after his arrest, Judge Coyne had sentenced him to 120 days, a limit of a very heavy charge, to which he pleaded guilty. He was sent up for sixty days for a like offense a few months ago.

BRYAN MEN TO KNIFE JUDGE PARKER

REPUBLICANS WILL HAVE GREAT MAJORITY IN THE WEST.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—A majority beyond precedent in Western States and possibly a victory in Missouri—this is the outlook of the Republican National Committee as disclosed to-day. For this expected triumph the Republicans rely largely on the Bryan Democrats, and Harry S. New, national committeeman from Indiana, expressed positively to-day the conviction that men of them would vote for Roosevelt. The sentiment relied upon to so influence free silver men is a feeling of resentment and distrust of all street influences.

"It can be foreseen by a short study of human nature what the Bryan Democrats will do," said New. "Of the one side is a party which has always told them that they are wrong. On the other is a management and a committee that they believe tricked them out of control and which now has repudiated the doctrines that Bryan and the free silver men believe in. Bryan may talk for Parker but he cannot help him. He cannot get around what he has already said, as shown on little cards which we are sending out."

"I am not chasing rainbows and I do not prophesy that Missouri will go Republican, but we are going to have a surprise there some day. That State had 304,840 Republican votes in 1902. No one knows how many were prevented voting in St. Louis, and in the southwestern part of the State there was practically no organization of the party whatever. The men in that section are like the Kentuckians back in the mountains—nearly all Republicans. Now, the Democrats for eight years have been preaching free silver to the poorest voters of Missouri. This year the party is under the control of the very influences that Bryan has condemned as the most dangerous in the country. I would not be amazed if there were a revolution in Missouri this fall."

AN INJUNCTION IS NOW THE PLAN

ANTI-VACCINATIONISTS RAISE HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS TO FIGHT THE LAW.

BERKELEY, August 19.—The local fight against the compulsory vaccination law took definite form last night, when about $500 was raised to fight the law. According to the statements made at a mass meeting held last night in the Odd Fellows' Hall, an effort is to be made to secure a writ of injunction against the law that will keep all children who are not vaccinated out of the schools.

Last night's session of the anti-vaccinationists was not as largely attended as the meeting of last Thursday night. Among the principal speakers last night were C. F. Van Loven of Oakland, Dr. J. W. Ober, John H. Badger, J. Stitt Wilson and J. S. Nichols.

PREPARING FOR BUSINESS.

Passing 70 San Pablo avenue, the people are attracted by preparations going on which seem to indicate that an important business is about to be established. Machinery filled the store, glass adorned the windows and a handsome silver shoe of giant proportions rested on a post at the sidewalk. Another shoe, made entirely of leather, size 98, stood in a window. The owners of the cut-rate shoe factories, now in successful operation in other cities, on looking over the field in Oakland, were impressed with the fact that the people here would appreciate a factory doing work at lowest prices, made possible by the fact that the day of the old repair shop is over and modern machinery is taking the place of hand work. Finding such a favorable field for their efforts, the result is the establishment of such a factory at 70 San Pablo avenue.

Jenkins Richards, a resident of Teale aged 71 years, was found dead this morning at the residence of Harry W. Teeple, 80 Sixth street. Death was due to asphyxiation. From the surrounding circumstances it is thought that the deceased came to his death accidentally. According to the statement made by Mr. Teeple, who is a relative of the deceased, Richards came to pay him a visit yesterday. He was in good spirits and when he retired he evidently forgot to turn the gas off or else blew it out. Coroner Mehrmann has taken charge of the remains and will make an investigation.

EMPLOYEE STOLE SCRAPS OF GOLD

ROCHESTER, N. Y., August 19.—A nugget of gold weighing nearly two pounds, worth $800, has been found by the police who arrested David Eber, a jeweler, on the charge of receiving stolen property. A short time ago a firm of opticians notified the authorities that their inventory of gold showed a shortage, used in manufacturing eye glass frames, covering a considerable space of time and amounting to several thousand dollars. An employee was suspected who had access to the vault and the police obtained confession. They were told that in employee stole scraps of gold regularly such week. LINE OF MARCH ARRANGED

LABOR DAY COMMITTEE PERFECTS PLANS FOR CELEBRATION.

The General Labor Day Committee met last night at Cooks and Waiters' headquarters. It was one of the largest meetings yet held and perfect harmony characterized the entire proceedings. A resolution was adopted establishing a prize competition for an essay on Labor Day. Any boy or girl in Alameda county under sixteen years of age will be eligible. The sum of $10 will be awarded to the writer of the successful essay. All the manuscripts must be in the hands of the committee by September 3 at 6 p. m. and will be decided on by three judges chosen respectively by the District Council of Carpenters, Central Labor Council and the Labor Day Committee. The latter body has chosen D. A. Shannon. The prize will be awarded on Labor Day. Final arrangements for the line of march of the parade on Labor Day were made last night, as follows: The parade will form on Broadway at Second street, will march thence up Broadway to Ninth, to Washington, to Fourteenth, to Grove, to San Pablo avenue, to Twentieth street, then to Telegraph avenue where the members will board cars for Idora Park where the picnic will be held. The reviewing stand will be at the junction of San Pablo avenue and Grove street. The school children will be stationed on Grove street between Fourteenth street and San Pablo avenue.

T. J. Hopkins was selected marshal of the Fourth Division of the parade in place of J. Forest who will be unable to take part. Reports received from the various sub-committees were all of the most progressive character. All unions so far interviewed expressed the intention of turning out in full strength. Word was received from a number of San Francisco unions saying that they would be here in full strength. From all appearances the celebration of Labor Day this year will surpass any previous demonstration of a similar character in this county.

Still Selling Crux Furniture for Less

Of the 200 pieces of the Crux Furniture which we placed on sale last week, about 35 pieces remain. If you have not inspected the lot, you had better do so this week. By buying the entire sample line of the manufacturer, we secured a price concession that enables us to sell these pieces to you at a price which we would pay in the ordinary course of business. Prices range from $1.00 to $27 and the variety of pieces is still good. See display in both big windows.

BUSY DAYS FOR SOLDIERS IN THE SOUTH

They Are Given Some Hard Work in Camp—Warm Weather
Worries the Men.

ATASCADERO, August 19.—The battle yesterday between the contending forces in the mimic game of war, was undoubtedly the most interesting of the series thus far held, but, at this writing, the umpires have not spoken and no one may tell whether the blues or the browns have won. The commander of each battalion claims the victory, but the claim cannot be sustained. In brief, the brown forces were expected to cut off, capture and destroy a wagon train, comprising about eighty heavy-laden wagons, nearly all of which are actively connected with the regular service of the United States army.

What old campaigners would style a pretty artillery duel was fought. The cavalry, too, made some brilliant moves and the infantry was brought into action at an opportune moment, but the impression obviates nevertheless that the wagon train failed to reach its destination, and that when the recall was sounded, the immense conveyance had signally failed. For a heroic struggle to successfully guard the property which it was to convey, COLONEL HAYES DISPLEASED. The battle was not fought in such the way of commanding a body of troops, including several arms of the service, in which Federal troops are to be included. This is the first time that an honor of this kind has fallen to a member of the Fifth Infantry, N. G. C., and the result is awaited with interest by all the members of that regiment and friends of the color throughout the State. In the command will be the Fifth California, including companies A and F of Oakland; G of Alameda and F of Company of Alameda; all of the Fifth California, comprising companies located in San Francisco: Field artillery, comprising two platoons of the First Battery, C. A.; a detachment of signal corps and another detachment of the hospital corps. These comprise what is known as the Brown Forces, which are to march across the mountains to guard station, which is strongly held by the Blues. The commander of the Browns is directed to wait, if unopposed at the mouth of Atascadero creek further orders from his superior commander. Having detached from the force without sign of the Blue Force, he camps on Atascadero Creek.

excruciatingly hot weather as was that of yesterday, despite the fact, it caused a great deal of suffering among the Alameda county boys of the Fifth California, who took part in it. So patient was that fact that Colonel Hayes of the Fifth, Lieutenant-Colonel Julliard, Captain A. P. Smiley, quartermaster of Alameda; Captain M. W. Simpson, also of Alameda, declared that too much was expected of the militia, especially at this period of the encampment, when the State troops are still, as he puts it, unacclimated and are decidedly unaccustomed to the demands made upon their physical strength and endurance.

HOME TROOPS AND TRAIN.
The train today was divided into three sections, and the second of these was in command of Captain A. P. Smiley of Alameda, there being twenty four-mile teams in the division. The section was supported on the left by the Fifth California under Colonel Hayes. It held its position for some time, but it was finally taken away at the tactical and sent forward as an advance guard. It was again taken away and rushed forward with the intention, presumably, of charging a battery in a strongly entrenched position, when the recall was sounded, some declare through mistake, but that is a matter which will yet have to be fought out between the umpires.

The boys of the Fifth Regiment did not reach camp until between 2 and 3 o'clock this afternoon, having been in the march or fight since practically 7:30 of this morning. This fact caused Colonel Hayes to criticise the treatment of his men as follows:
"There is reason in everything, but this is going too hard on the militia. The men are willing to work, but this is too hard starting out. My men started out at 7:30 o'clock this morning. It is now 2 o'clock. They will not be in here for an hour yet. They have had nothing to eat since then. They can't be expected to stand such work as that, and then, one battalion will have to go out tonight to build trenches. This is either going to make or to break the National Guard."

"These operations," said Captain Simpson of Alameda, "are on too large a scale, to begin with. The men cannot but be displeased. The exercise is too long, especially at this time."

"This is driving the troops a little too hard," said Captain Smiley, "especially before they have had time to get acclimated."

Today an opportunity is to be given Colonel John Hayes, formerly of Oakland, commander of the Fifth California self when leaving Alameda.

ARMY INVENTION.

All the commands among the militia are living as comfortably as possible, considering the disadvantages of life in the field. They have been particularly successful in selecting good providers, although at times the company fund has been drawn upon in some instances for the purpose of securing luxuries not contemplated by Uncle Sam in making up his schedule of rations.

In this connection it may be stated that First Lieutenant Fred Peterson of A Company, Fifth Infantry of Oakland has by means of a contrivance of his own, added a great deal to the appetizing character of the viands which are discussed by the organization with which he is connected. He has, in a very simple manner, so extended the usefulness of the company box of A company as to make it do duty as a company refrigerator, in which edibles may be kept at a temperature, if so required, of 30 degrees. In coming to this camp the box carried the belongings of the company. When it was emptied of its contents it was set up in A Company's company, and by means of a simple device converted into a refrigerator. In the same manner Lieutenant Peterson has made a dual use of his own camp box, which tends greatly to minimize the privations of camp life. Lieutenant Peterson has made application for a patent on his design.

There is only one battalion mess in the Fifth California, and that is maintained by the officers of the First Battalion, comprising the officers of Companies A and F of Oakland, and G of Alameda, namely: Captains Hunt, Wetherill and Gilguy, First Lieutenants Peterson, Covatt and Schroeder, and Second Lieutenants Poulter, Johansen and McConnell. The steward of this coterie of good living is Quartermaster Sergeant Hermann, one of the most energetic members of the command, who is assisted by Artificer Klunkner.

There have been many encampments of National Guardsmen in this State since California first recognized its citizen soldiery, and of these, during the past forty-three years, Sergeant Charles Ellis, armorer of A and F companies, of the Twelfth street company, Oakland, has attended thirty-one. Such an attendance is without an equal on the part of any other member of the guard in this State.

Sergeant Ellis is also by reason of consecutive years of service, the oldest National Guardsman of California. He has been connected with the State troops of California for forty-three years, during which time he has been prominent in many ways, and has never been excelled by any person in his devotion to the cause. Guardsmen come and go. They resign, they even become governors, they die, but Sergeant Ellis still goes on every march with, and to every encampment of the National Guard. He is now in his sixty-third year, and there is no member in the command who will enter with him in competition in the manual of arms. Sergeant Ellis is here today and no one may tell when the time will arrive at which he will cease to be counted among the State's defenders.

UNFOUNDED STORIES.

Libelous stories have been published in some of the San Francisco papers to the effect that the Fifth Infantry, and more especially companies of the command in Oakland and other Alameda county towns, has made raids upon surrounding ranches and engaged in bloody encounters with the Ninth Cavalry, which is composed of colored troopers.

It is a pleasure to THE TRIBUNE reporter to declare that such rumors are utterly without foundation. For this reason the stories have caused the boys a great deal of annoyance because they feel that in some sections the uncharitable falsification will be believed.

So far from raids having been made, the fact is that the conduct of the boys in question has been of a most commendable character. Up to the present time there has not even been a single member of the command in the guard house, and Sergeant Willard, who was in charge of that place, today told THE TRIBUNE correspondent he did not believe he would have a man in that place while he should be in command of the place.

William B. Hamilton, deputy Controller of the State of California, has been passing a few days here and enjoying the scene, the climate and the excitement to the utmost. Aside from the fact that Mr. Hamilton has a host of friends among the military gentlemen on the grounds, he has also another right to a sojourn here among those gentlemen of war, because, years ago he was a leader among that dashing coterie of guardsmen, known as The Oakland Light Cavalry. It is a story that every member of that organization was an Adonis as well as a devotee of Mars, and "Billy" Hamilton was understood to be preeminently qualified for membership in the organization which caused so much heart palpitation in the days that are gone.

A prominent club woman, Mrs. Danforth of S. Joseph, Mo., tells how she was cured of falling of the womb and its accompanying pains and misery by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Life looks dark indeed when a woman feels that her strength is fading away, and she has no hopes of ever being restored. Such was my feeling a few months ago when I was advised that my poor health was caused by prolapsus or falling of the womb. The words sounded like a knell to me. I felt that my sun had set; but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to me as an elixir of life; it restored me to health and built me up until my good health returned to me. For four months I took the medicine daily, and each dose added health and strength. I am so thankful for the help I obtained through your use."—Mrs. FLORENCE DASHFORTH, 1007 Mills Ave., St. Joseph, Mo.

ALONG TRACKS OF IRON HORSE.

EXTENSIVE PREPARATIONS BEING MADE IN ANTICIPATION OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

ONE RR. HEAD VANDALISM.

Preparations are being made by the Southern Pacific Company to properly and safely conduct the thousands of visiting Knights Templar over the lines during the latter part of this month and the first of September. It is estimated that 15,000 Knights Templar and their families will journey to this coast to participate in the great convocation to be held in San Francisco next month. Nearly every one of the 172 locomotives on the Western Division will be pressed into service to carry the long lines of trains and the Southern Pacific Company is preparing for the event by overhauling its locomotives. At present there are several locomotives in the repair shops at West Oakland. The trucks are being thoroughly inspected so as to lessen the danger of accidents and everything possible is being done by the company to safely carry the distinguished visitors over its lines.

According to an Easter railroad authority, 112 Pullman trains have been chartered to bring the Knights to this coast. These and other trains will be met at Sacramento, Fresno and San Jose by locomotives and crews from the Western Division and carried through to the bay. Many of the cars will be sidetracked in the West Oakland yard and the visitors will live in the cars during their stay here. The train will begin arriving in about two weeks.

INSPECTION TOUR.

Superintendent W. S. Palmer and several of the officials of the Southern Pacific Company left yesterday for a tour of inspection and business among the railroad men. Superintendent Palmer recently returned from an inspection of the Lodi branch, which is being made from a narrow gauge line to a broad gauge line. There is a interruption of work on this branch, however, as the broad gauge rails are being laid on either side of the narrow gauge tracks.

MEETING POSTPONED.

There will be no meeting of the Pacific Coast Railway Club this month owing to the presence of business among the railroad men. The club will meet, however, on the press of business, when a paper will be read by P. S. Ainsworth, chief surgeon and manager of the San Francisco Hospital, Deputy Controller C. C. Gordon, secretary of the club will announce further particulars concerning the meeting later.

INSTALL WATER PLANT.

Niles Seales Jr. has returned from Cruston where he directed the installation of a complete water supply system. Mr. Seales is superintendent of the water system of the Southern Pacific Company.

VISIT OF PAY CAR.

The pay car has made its regular monthly visit to the West Oakland yards with the result that about $75,000 was distributed among the employees. All were paid in checks as has been the custom for some time and so all the employees were paid in a little more than an hour. Before the check system was inaugurated it required about eight hours to distribute the money. Now, however, the men do not have to wait long in line.

NOTES FROM THE YARDS.

A stretch of track in the rear of the round-house is being re-laid. The track was laid up because the old dropping from the locomotives had settled into the ground, causing it to become soggy and throwing the track out of line, which resulted in locomotives frequently jumping from the rails. The contract has been let to the Fulton Iron Works of San Francisco to convert car floats one and two into a stern wheel car at present the float is being towed back and forth on the way by the rig Halls.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. H. Seals, master mechanic at the West Oakland shops, left yesterday for Santa Cruz to join his family for a vacation of two weeks.

FERRY DELAYED.

Because two inspectors in the German customs service wanted to go to Samoa by the Venturian yesterday, the ferry boat Berkeley was delayed twenty minutes at the Oakland wharf to await the arrival of the inspectors.

SEE'S MOTHER DIES.

Charles F. See, passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific Company in San Francisco and formerly general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific, returned from Richmond, Ind., yesterday where he was suddenly called a couple of weeks ago on account of the serious illness of his mother. She died an hour after his arrival. Mrs. See was ninety-one years of age.

Why Port Arthur Holds Out

General Stoessel's refusal to surrender Port Arthur by no means indicates a belief on his part that he can hold out for any great length of time, let alone prevent ultimate capture of the fortress. He may be able to hold out indefinitely, but the rapid and continuous advances made by the Japanese since the storming of Wolf Hill on July 28 negates the idea. According to the most reliable information obtainable, the garrison is short of ammunition and provisions, and is constantly being reduced by losses from wounds and sickness. The city and its defenses are under a continuous rain of fire, allowing the defenders no time for rest. This involves a terrific mental and physical strain which taxes endurance to the limit.

But why should the Russians make a hopeless fight to the last gasp? It may be asked. For precisely the same reasons that prompted the Japanese commander to offer favorable terms for a speedy surrender. Kuropatkin's safety for the present depends largely on the ability of Port Arthur to hold out for a while longer. He is in a tight place. He holds a strong position south of Liao Yang, but both his wings are enveloped by the Japanese flanking divisions. If the forces at Port Arthur could be released for operations in the field, in two or three days they would be hammering on Kuropatkin's front, while Kuroki on the west and Oku on the east would be pushing their flanking columns north to completely surround the main Russian army. Stoessel is holding at Port Arthur from 75,000 to 100,000 effective men who can instantly be hurled against Kuropatkin the instant the fortress falls, for the railroad north of Port Arthur is in the hands of the Japanese and is in excellent working order. The besieging battalions can be loaded on cars and in thirty-six hours transported within striking distance of Kuropatkin's front.

These facts are obvious reasons for Stoessel's obstinate resistance to the last. They are equally obvious reasons for the Japanese desire for an early surrender. Then again, the fall of Port Arthur means the surrender or blowing up of the warships in the harbor. It would mean the release of Togo's fleet from an arduous blockade duty, and liberty to bottle up Vladivostok. With this port closed and its crippled squadron fast inside, Togo could refit and repair and intercept the Baltic fleet should it venture through the Suez Canal or attempt to double the Cape of Good Hope. With free and undisturbed command of the eastern seas, the Japanese could aggressively push the campaign in Manchuria, either to capture Kuropatkin or drive him eastward and place their armies between him and Vladivostok. In either event the Russian occupation of Manchuria would be at an end, and the chance of resuming it exceedingly small.

No doubt the Japanese losses in front of Port Arthur have been heavy, but they have been greatly exaggerated. Little credence is to be placed in the Chefoo report that thousands of Japanese were blown up in an assault on the 16th inst. On that day the Japanese stormed some advanced forts and placed their batteries nearer the city. Besides, the blowing up by mines is only a variation of a story that has previously come from Chefoo half a dozen times. None of those stories has ever been verified, and all are contradicted by the Japanese official reports and by information from reliable sources. The last report is discredited by the statement embodied in it that squadrons of cavalry and companies of artillery were blown up in the assault. Cavalry and artillery do not storm fortifications. It would be manifestly absurd for horsemen to ride against forts. It would be equally silly for artillery to rush against ditches, breastworks, and barbed wire fences. It is true that cavalry and artillerymen might operate as infantry, but again it would be foolish for the Japanese to sacrifice their cavalry and artillery when they have all the infantry they require for storming service.

The question is, how long can Stoessel hold out? Every day of resistance means much to both sides. It entails a loss and delay to the Japanese that hurts. Not only that, the siege is costing enormously in the expenditure of expensive ammunition. Their fleet and a mighty army are tied like horses to a post to the fiery furnace raging around the Tiger's Tail. Stoessel is making a magnificent defense that is pregnant with the deepest significance to the Russian cause. His heroic obstinacy is postponing if not averting a crushing disaster to the Czar's arms.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says that the 13-inch shell which killed Admiral Witthoft was fired at a range of eight miles. This is a remarkable tribute to Japanese gunnery. Apparently in the great sea fight the Japanese ships kept at a sufficient distance to minimize the chance of being hit by the Russian gunners, and thus escaped serious injury, while the superior marksmanship of the Japanese gunners enabled them to hammer the Muscovite vessels terribly.

Henry G. Davis speaks of capital as stored labor. How comes it that he has upwards of $20,000,000 worth of other men's labor stored up to his credit? He also professes to believe that the laborer is entitled to a just share of the fruits of his toil. Does he think the men who have toiled for him have received their just share?

A Defense of Bishop Potter

The New York Sun prints an editorial warmly endorsing Bishop Potter for "giving the sanction of the church and his ecclesiastical office to a liquor saloon." As Bishop Potter is a great friend to J. P. Morgan, who is popularly credited with controlling the Sun, this is not surprising. But the defense of the Bishop made by the Sun is worthy of examination for several reasons. First, it is suggested that poor men have as much right to drink liquor in saloons as rich men have to drink it in clubs, and that they are entitled to get good liquor for as little money as possible. Second, that a good profit can be made in supplying first-class intoxicants at low prices. Both these propositions are indisputable. But is sobriety promoted by selling good liquor cheap? Is the cause of temperance advanced by the argument that there is a handsome profit to be realized in the liquor business?

It is assumed by radical temperance advocates that saloon keepers—the ordinary, godless, unbelieved variety of publicans—encourage men to get drunk. Nothing is further from the truth. The average saloon keeper does not want to see men get drunk; objects to drunken men in his place, and endeavors to dissuade men from drinking to an advanced stage of intoxication. Saloonkeepers recognize the fact, however, that the goods they sell produce intoxication, and the nature of their calling compels them to humor it to a certain extent. If the good Bishop's idea is thrift, Horatio, thrift, then his idea does not differ materially from that of the publican who is frankly in the liquor business to make a profit. Like the Bishop, his theory is that men will drink liquor and he is there to supply the demand without discussing the ethical phases of the liquor traffic or discarding on the morals of intemperance.

The average saloon keeper will frankly tell his customers that the less liquor they drink the better they are off. Many retail liquor dealers are strictly temperate, and do not hesitate to say a man is a fool to squander his money in drink. They make no professions of altruistic motives, and do not pretend that their business tends to promote temperance. Most of them prefer to make it as clean and decent as they can and would be pleased if they never saw a drunken man in their places.

It is notorious among drinking men that many saloons are conducted precisely on the lines laid down for Bishop Potter's model saloon—good liquor, low prices, and a minimum of intoxication. This governing rule is dictated partly by the natural instincts of the proprietors and partly by business policy. Why should not Bishop Potter go around and give his canonical blessing to all such places?

Japanese and American Gunnery

If it be true that the Japanese hit the Russian ships with their big guns at a range of from five to eight miles, it is an evidence of remarkable skill in gunnery, particularly as the fighting was mainly at night. During the sea fight off Santiago not one of the 12-inch shells fired from the American battleships struck a Spanish ship. The Oregon and Indiana did all their effective work with their smaller guns, not one of the shells from their turret monsters hit the mark. Only a few of the Brooklyn's eight inch shells struck the enemy, although the Brooklyn ranged within less than half the distance the Japanese fleet kept from the Russians. The Brooklyn is a cruiser, while Togo flew his flag from a battleship. Schley was sharply criticized for not closing in with the Spanish, but in the light of the example of Togo, an acknowledged master of modern sea strategy, Schley showed more daring than caution in fighting with a cruiser at less than 5000 yards range. Much as Togo desired to strike a finishing blow he would take no foolhardy risks at close quarters with a desperate foe. At Manila Dewey fought at from 4000 to 6000 yards range, but the Spaniards had no formidable modern guns of heavy caliber to pit against him. Dewey kept at a safe distance from the Spanish guns, which were handled with remarkable inefficiency. But for the splendid marksmanship of his gunners Togo would have been compelled to take greater risks at close quarters or let Withoef's squadron escape. He seems to have had a perfect knowledge of what his men could do, and did not take an unnecessary chance.

"Teddy is a holy terror," says the Louisville Courier-Journal. Only to thieves and Democrats, Colonel. Nobody suspects you of belonging to the first class, and we have William J. Bryan's word for it that you are no Democrat. So calm yourself and take another julep.

As a proof that Socialism represents the true philosophy of life and government, an enthusiast triumphantly exclaims, "The Socialists are rapidly increasing in number." So are flies, hoodlums, lunatics, paupers, Mormons and lawyers. The fact proves nothing so far as the beliefs of cults and classes are concerned. The spread of Mohammedanism does not prove that Mahomet was a prophet. The eternal verities are not affected by the number of persons who believe in them.

OUR NEXT CONGRESSMAN

The Republicans of this district are to be congratulated on the action of the convention which yesterday nominated Hon. Joseph R. Knowland of Alameda as their candidate for Congressman from this, the Third Congressional District. As to his election there is no question and it is doubtful if the opposition will be able to find a man who will accept the empty honor to make the fruitless campaign. Mr. Knowland's popularity was in evidence at all times yesterday and the many honest and sincere expressions for the man show the high esteem in which he is held. His record in the State Legislature for the past seven years is one to be proud of and to which his friends as well as himself can point with pride. His private life is pure and unsullied. He has the honesty, integrity and ability to faithfully fill the place recently made vacant by the Hon. Victor H. Metcalf. In the halls of Congress Hon. Joseph H. Knowland will fearlessly and honestly represent his constituents and loyally look after the interests of the district which he will represent.—Vallejo News.

MOTHER GOOSE RHYME.

Sing a song of silver,
Bryan full of spleen,
Davy Hill a-firting
With the old machine.
"Mercy sakes!" says Bryan,
Likewise "Goodness me!
Isn't this a lovely bunch
To buck the G. O. P.?"

IF YOU TRY.

You can wear a smiling face,
If you try, if you try;
You can be a means of grace,
If you try, if you try.
You can dry the mourner's tear,
You can gladden hearts with cheer,
You can banish doubt and fear,
If you try, if you try.

You can sing a joyful song,
If you try, if you try;
You can help a friend along,
If you try, if you try.
You can scatter golden seeds,
You can give to others' needs
You can live in little deeds,
If you try, if you try.

IMPROVERS MEET IN ENCINAL CITY.

OAKLANDERS ARE WELCOMED BY BOOSTERS ACROSS ESTUARY.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—Members of the West End Alameda Improvement Association were hosts last night at a rousing high jinks and smoker at their wigwag. The hall was beautifully decorated, the national colors and palms, with many Japanese lanterns, being used effectively. About 300 members and their friends, including prominent citizens of Oakland, Berkeley, Fruitvale and this city, sat down for an evening of mirth and revelry. A generous banquet was provided the guests.

The first speaker introduced by Toastmaster C. R. Smith was Hon. Warren Olney, Mayor of Oakland. He said in part: "I have been highly honored by being invited to this celebration, and the reception which has been accorded me has been one which has touched me deeply. For some little time, when I have visited your city, I have found that the people of Alameda are representative of the best in California, and saying that much, there is little I can add."

"Although the subject of annexation has been taboored for this evening, I

A LIMIT

One Thing Food Can't Do. Food can't exactly paint a picture, but proper food to restore the daily wear and tear on the brain and nerves as well as body can help. A successful artist says:

"I had been troubled with dyspepsia for 25 years and my system was so run down I was so weak and miserable life was a burden to me until I made a great discovery about food. I am an artist by profession and at that time was painting a large marine piece, but being in such poor health I could not do justice to it. And no matter how often I changed it there seemed always something wrong. Success lay just out of my reach because I did not have the strength to accomplish what I knew lay within me."

"Looking around me for help I decided to try a food I had heard so much about and that was the 'Tea' I was led to use Grape-Nuts and I came at the right time. I had hardly given it a fair trial before I began to feel so much better, my dyspepsia disappeared and I commenced to feel stronger and more vigorous all over, head and all, and it was not long before I was back at my work again with renewed energy and interest."

TEA

Tea is not infallible; moneyback makes amends. We are not, in the least, uneasy about the money.

Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's Tea.

cannot refrain from saying a few words in regard to the manner in which the people of this city look upon Oakland's attitude toward an amalgamation. Let me quiet your fears. We want you, but we do not want you against your will. No legislation will be sought to unite Alameda into a city and county government against the will of your people. This is where I stand and where I expect to stand."

Among other speakers who promoted the good feeling prevailing were Hon. Joseph R. Knowland, Edward A. Stearns, Judge R. B. Tappan, Dr. C. L. Tidwell, J. J. O'Toole, Tom Jeffries of the Twenty-third Avenue Improvement Club, Captain W. T. Welch, Hon. E. K. Taylor, Stewart McMullen, Hon. J. C. Bates Jr. and others.

Senator E. K. Taylor said: "A united community can accomplish almost anything," he declared, "and has been proven by the history of Alameda."

Dr. Thomas Farris was another speaker whose talk was appreciated. He told of information received from the chief of the weather bureau to the effect that climatically the Alameda side of the bay is 100 miles from San Francisco, and the speaker testified that this corresponded with his own experience and observation. He believed a break water would add greatly to the advantages of the city.

An announcement was made that there would be a meeting of the Alameda County Association held at Calaveras hall at the corner of Clay and Eleventh streets, Oakland on next Thursday night.

C. S. Weil of the Alameda Advance Association, complimented the West End people on their association with the city.

A letter from Governor Pardee was read expressing his regret that he was unable to be present.

Letters of regret from Senator Geo. C. Perkins, and President Benjamin H. Hiram were among those read.

Trustee Fowler talked about electric lights and power.

J. J. O'Toole of Elmhurst made the closing talk and the meeting closed with a final toast to the friends and visitors.

WILL HELP THE CHIEF.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—The friends of Fire Chief Fred K. Krauth, who is criticized over the conduct of the department at the fire a week ago on Sherman street, have rallied to his support and will be present at the investigation to be formally made by the City Trustees next Monday night. After a petition urging an investigation of the charges of alleged mismanagement and full of censure of the fire chief was put in circulation yesterday, a counter petition full of eulogy of Krauth made its appearance and is securing many signers. It reads as follows:

"Alameda, Cal., August 18, 1904. "To the Honorable Board of Trustees of the City of Alameda—Gentlemen: Realizing that certain groundless charges have been made against the chief of the Alameda fire department, charges that in a measure tend to compromise his ability as a fire-fighter, and realizing further that these charges, through the medium of the press, have been given great publicity, and have worked and will work great damage to our city, branding it to the world as a place where our homes and business houses are constantly menaced by fire; and being fully assured of the competency of the chief of our fire department, established by his long, brilliant and highly meritorious career as chief in our city, we, the undersigned citizens and property-owners of the city of Alameda, do most respectfully petition your honorable body, in view of the great damage which being wrought to our city, constantly by petty atti-tators, to suffer the unjust charges made against our worthy chief, to be dismissed and the investigation now pending to be pursued as touching solely upon the means and apparatus we have at our disposal with which to cope with fires."

VICIOUS BURGLAR AT WORK.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 19.—The police are convinced that a vicious Japanese burglar is at large in Alameda, and the description given by Mrs. Ella Force, wife of Dr. Cline Force of Alameda avenue as to the intruder who leaped at her throat and choked her in her bedroom Wednesday evening at an early hour points to a little brown man of wiry shows as the criminal.

"We were all in the kitchen at 8:30 p.m. as my husband returned from the city," said Mrs. Force. "I thought I heard a noise in the front part of the house and went into the hallway and listened. I heard nothing further and so did not mention my suspicions, more especially as Dr. Force is always twitting me on my fear of burglars. When I heard a noise again, as I supposed, emanating from my bedroom, which is near the front door, I came forward through the bathroom, which adjoins to investigate again. It was then that I saw the man in the sleeping room and he choked me so fiercely that the marks of his nails appear today on my throat."

"As soon as I put my head in the room he sprang for me, and seizing me with both hands by the neck dug his thumbs into my flesh until I was nearly strangled. I struggled with him and tried to scream for help. My husband heard the noise and the burglar ran out of the front door at a bound. The fellow seemed short and slight, as though he were but a young man, but he was very strong. In the scuffle with him I felt his face and it was clean shaven. I also felt the glazed surface of the visor of a cap he wore. The police believe he was a Japanese. We employed a Japanese as a gardener about the place some time ago."

On the same night about 10 o'clock J. Langran, a driver for the Vernon Creamery, saw a man in the rear yard of Mrs. S. Levy's residence at 1831 Pacific avenue. Knowing that there was no man about the place the driver's suspicions were aroused and he returned to investigate. When he approached the fellow ran, getting over the rear fence. The description of the fellow seems to establish his identity as the same thug who choked Mrs. Force. Langran says he wore a cap and seemed to him to be a Jap.

ALAMEDA PERSONALS.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 19.—Edward Meyers of Pacific avenue has returned from an extended tour of the Eastern States. Miss Isabel Frier of 2117 Santa Clara avenue is spending a vacation with friends in Southern California.

W. B. Bayley, who has been seriously ill at the Alameda Sanitarium, was seen upon the street today for the first time in two months. Edward Wichman of Santa Clara avenue entertained several friends last evening at a theater party at Ye Liberty Playhouse.

John J. Carroll of Chicago visited friends in this city yesterday. Mr. Carroll is now en route to Hong Kong, where he has been sent in the interests of a prominent book firm in Chicago, illustrating one of their new publications.

William Schmidt of this city is expected to return tomorrow from a visit to the St. Louis Exposition. Rev. Gilman Parker will entertain a few friends at his residence on San Antonio avenue this evening.

MORGAN ORDERED TO COURT.

LAWYERS ARE TRYING TO LOCATE A RICH MAN'S MONEY.

NEW YORK, August 19.—In an effort to locate large sums of money supposed to have been on deposit with bankers here to the credit of the late James Miller, counsel representing his daughter and heir, Miss Mary J. Miller of Columbus, Ohio, has secured subpoenas for J. P. Morgan and other well-known financiers commanding them to appear in the State Supreme Court.

The petitioner seeks to examine the

PHENACETINE TO BE DESTROYED

NEW YORK, August 19.—The final act in a bit of litigation which has lasted since January, 1898, and which involved the right of the United States Government to sell copyrighted or patented goods which had been smuggled, has developed through two men turning over to the authorities 29,050 grains of phenacetine, to be destroyed in accordance with the direction of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. The drug is worth $1 an ounce. The drug was smuggled into the country, seized and sold. The purchasers, two local agents, began preparations to sell it to the trade, but were halted by an injunction procured by a representative of the German manufacturers. The latter claimed to have sole right to the name of the drug, having procured a copyright on the word. After six years before the courts, the manufacturers were upheld. The men who bought it from the government have now been compelled to turn it back and can only recover their money through a special act of Congress.

MARKET REPORTS OF WEEK.

BUSINESS SHOWS UP WELL WITH A HEALTHY OUTLOOK FOR FALL TRADE.

NEW YORK, August 19.—Advices received by the International Mercantile Agency show that there has been little change in business conditions during the week except in districts especially affected by reports of crop damage and disturbance incident to the cut in steel prices. Business on the whole shows up well, and in most retail lines is fully holding its own. In certain sections of the West trade has been decidedly stimulated, with improved distribution and generally hopeful feeling.

Commercial centers are beginning to feel the impetus of summer travel and buyers are flocking to distributing points, disposed to buy liberally, although with marked discrimination. This is a good sign and shows that replenishment this year will be conducted along conservative lines. More seasonal weather throughout the Southwest has led to better results in many lines, especially in dry goods and various branches of apparel. Boot and shoe orders are in better volume and jobbers in hats and caps are forcing factories to work overtime to keep up with current business. This improvement has extended to the clothing industry, the outlook for which in some sections was reported to be rather uncertain a week ago. Less stock than usual is believed to have been carried over on many lines owing to the known conservatism of prominent dealers. Their experience last winter was suggestive of the greater care that was displayed this year in avoiding the "overstocking evil" for spring and summer goods.

An excellent demand for groceries, especially staples, where prices are firm and distribution is for the most part satisfactory. Encouraging returns are shown in dry goods, and in paints and oils. Leather has been active at the South with better advance in prices, owing to the scarcity of properly cured hides. The wool market has also strengthened somewhat and tobacco in general is holding firm.

The Kansas City and St. Louis districts report another week of active business with steady improvement in many lines and generally expanding trade. The latter section especially is feeling the stimulus of increased trade from the world's fair visitors whose purchases are swelling the volume of ordinary business to abnormal proportions. While the final results are, in a measure, dependent upon the crop development, it is noteworthy that the districts which would suffer the most from a disastrous shortage have not been alarmed by the excitement that has attended this week's trading in wheat options at New York, Chicago and Minneapolis.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT.

A. GOMES, WHO HAS RESIDED IN SAN LEANDRO MANY YEARS PASSES AWAY.

SAN LEANDRO, August 19.—At an early hour Thursday morning, Antonio Gomes passed away at his home on Farrington street. At the time of his death, Mr. Gomes was sixty-two years of age and had lived in this city for over thirty-eight years. He was one of the early members of the Portuguese Union, Lodge No. 1, and his funeral will be conducted under the auspices of that organization from the Catholic church to morning.

Deceased was a native of the Azores Islands and came to this State in 1866.

Off For Europe

But Waits to Hear From California First—One Week with Fulton's Compound Surprised This Diabetic.

Gray & Worcester have the largest and most important drug store in Detroit, Mich. The following letter will now be understood.

Mr. J. Fulton Co., San Francisco: "Gentlemen—We have a customer using your compound for Diabetes, who is going to Europe and wants six months' treatment in capsule form. Please send us sufficient to last him that period. Send return mail, two have plenty of the liquid. We recommended it to him one week ago and sold him a bottle. He today reports reduction of sugar from three to one per cent. Yours, etc., GRAY & WORCESTER.

"Detroit, August 8, 1904."

Another late report is from J. H. Wright, Mineral Wells, Texas. Last year he was down with Bright's Disease and sold out his store in Western Texas and went to Mineral Wells to see if the springs would help him. There he heard of Fulton's Compound and sent to this city for the renal compound. He took several dozen, reported the albumen disappearing, gradual improvement, and final recovery. Result—He is telling everybody, and we just have a letter from him, dated Mineral Wells August 9th, stating: "I have now got J. A. Bennett, one of my patients, on it. You will please send him two dozen Bright's Compound, at once. A 90 sent me another dozen. It is the greatest medicine in the world." As it saved Wright's life, his enthusiasm is natural. It is almost certain to lift his friend out, too.

These are not twentieth century miracles, but surely mean that the two great scourges, Bright's Disease and Diabetes, do actually yield to the Fulton Compound. Send our literature and list of agents to an afflicted friend. Write Jno. J. Fulton Co., 409 Washington street, San Francisco.

When to suspect Bright's Disease—Swollen ankles or hands, weakness without visible cause; kidney trouble after third month; urine often clouded; may be smoky or show sediment; full vision; drowsiness; one or more of the following: Headache, Dizziness, Backache, Stomach trouble, Seventh and Ninth Streets, Oakland, Cal., Thirteenth and Broadway, San Francisco, and Market Street, San Francisco.

He leaves seven children—five sons and two daughters. He was a widower, his wife having died nine years ago. Interment will be in the Haywards Catholic cemetery.

WILL VISIT HIS OLD HOME. T. A. Shields, stenographer at the Best Works, leaves shortly for a trip through the Northern States, from where he will travel to Fairmount, Indiana, to visit his old home. He will be away for some time.

MAY BE TRANSFERRED. Rev. F. R. Walton, pastor of the M. E. church, expects shortly to be transferred to some other city and on Sunday evening next will deliver his last illustrated temperance lecture at the church.

PERSONAL NOTES. Eliza Lane and brother were recent visitors in Oakland. Miss Hedwig Tychson, Western Union operator at Haywards, is the guest of Miss Lulu Doherty. Howard Hoerster is now in the employ of the California Electrical Company of San Francisco. J. Williams of Palo Alto was the recent guest of J. Anderson of this city. Mrs. J. Barberio is seriously ill. William Fowler of Calisoga is the guest of his brother, G. Fowler.

LETTER LIST. The following letters are in the post-office here awaiting claimants: Miss Mary I. Alameda, Jose Silveria, Furter, Mrs. Clara Howard, (2), Blumson, G. Morris, French, da Costa, Santos, Miss E. J. Moore, Mrs. J. Rodgers, Joaquin Francisco Silva, Hamilton M. Wright.

FOREST FIRES DO GREAT DAMAGE

PORTLAND, Ore., August 19.—Fires are still raging in the great forests of Washington, doing incalculable damage. The fire in the neighborhood of Fourth Plane, not far from Vancouver, Wash., is still burning fiercely. Reports from that district show that seven houses have been destroyed together with the mill of the Homestead Lumber Company, and large quantities of cut wood and much valuable timber. The situation is so alarming that a detachment from the barracks of Vancouver has been sent to the scene.

YACHTING. B. C., August 19.—Owing to the long continued dry weather, forest fires are spreading throughout the interior and along the coast of British Columbia. Practically every district in the province which is wooded was its fire and great tracts of valuable timber are ablaze. Nothing but heavy rains will prevent the further spread of the flames. There is so much smoke in the air that navigation is rendered difficult.

Millions of feet of standing timber have already been destroyed by the flames.

RUSSIA IS SORE.

ST. PETERSBURG, August 19, 7:25 a. m.—Referring to the British expedition into Tibet, the Novoe Vremya today says: "Russia is now being paid for the forbearance shown Great Britain during the South African war. Had we taken advantage of Great Britain's preoccupation to cross Persia, the British fleet might now have a base on the Persian Gulf from which to operate."

DIED FROM MOSQUITO BITE.

CHICAGO, August 19.—August Anderson, a farmer of Elkhart county, Ind., is dead in a Chicago hospital from the bite of a mosquito. Anderson suffered a slight injury which caused an abrasion of the skin on his right hand. A mosquito bit him in the abrasion and a few days later Anderson began to suffer intensely. He came to Chicago for treatment but blood poisoning resulted.

HE DISCUSSES NEUTRALITY.

NEW YORK, August 19.—In an interview with a Herald correspondent telegraphed from Bar Harbor, Maine, Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, discusses at length the Rysshitel incident at Chefoo. The question, instead of being closed, he says, is just opened, and, in an international sense, it is regarded by the ambassador as far more serious than any problem which has arisen before the world since the adjustment of the Boxer troubles.

"I regard the matter in such a serious light," he said, "because it is a fair way to terminate suddenly and finally the international agreement for the maintenance of the neutrality of China. That would be a calamity because of the dangers which would threaten not only China, but every nation that is interested in China."

A few incidents of similar character, the ambassador believed, might possibly force a war upon China, as at present the entire matter stands where it did before Secretary of State Hay sent his note to the powers on the subject of China's integrity and neutrality being respected by the combatants.

TOWN IN DANGER OF BEING BURNED

WELLINGTON, B. C., August 19.—The terminus of the Esquimalt and Northern Railway is in great danger of being wiped out by fires which surround it. Already much property, including the city school house of eight rooms has gone. Owing to the dense smoke it is impossible to penetrate to the lower end of the town, but it is known that the church, rectory and several large residences are in the greatest danger. The railway employees are fighting the flames, four locomotives hauling water.

The fire is drifting towards the Hamilton Powder Works and the greatest anxiety is felt as a strong wind is driving the flames in that direction.

HEAVY RAINS FALL.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., August 19.—Western Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma were visited by heavy rains during the past twenty-four hours. At Rich Hill, Mo., the fall of rain was estimated at six inches and it is feared that the Marais des Cygnes river will again overflow the lowlands. All coal mines at Rich Hill are closed on account of being flooded.

The rain in Kansas will prove beneficial to corn.

LADIES' GUILD OF FRUITVALE WILL DISPOSE OF HOME PRODUCTS.

FRUITVALE, Aug. 19.—Tomorrow afternoon the Ladies' Guild of the Congregational Church will hold a cake and apron sale at the armory, for the benefit of the Parsonage Fund. The members of the Guild have put forth great efforts and spared no pains to make the sale successful, and as it is in the benefit of a worthy cause, there is little or no doubt that their efforts will be rewarded. The armory will be tastefully decorated for the occasion and the goods to be sold will be displayed in the most attractive manner.

RUSHING THE NEW UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS ARE BEING SPENT ON THE BERKELEY COLLEGE CAMPUS.

BERKELEY, August 19.—Under the direct supervision of John Gale, Howard University has been progressing rapidly during the summer months. California Hall will be ready for use next spring, and the new Mining building by August, 1905. The Mining building, which was begun almost two years ago, will be the largest building on the campus. This immense structure will measure 250x300 feet and will cost, when complete, $500,000. It will be one of the finest buildings of its kind in the country. It is being erected at a cost of $250,000. It measures 200x70 feet and will be complete in every detail. It will be used for administrative offices and class rooms, and contains a large lecture hall, which will accommodate several hundred students.

Before the end of the year the large general power plant will also be in operation. It is to cost $60,000 and will furnish heat, light and power for all the buildings.

A system of rotary electric fans will be placed in the basements and attics of the various buildings, furnishing a perfect uniform system of ventilation, and smaller fans will be placed in many of the rooms. The plant was begun last April.

A $12,000 frame addition to the gymnasium will also be ready by January of next year. This addition will cover a space of 50x50 feet and will be fitted with locker and shower rooms. The gymnasium proper will not be enlarged.

LADIES' SOCIETY TO GIVE PINK TEA.

BERKELEY, August 19.—Elaborate plans are being made by the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist Church for a pink tea to be given in the church parlors tomorrow evening. As well as pink tarts on the chandeliers, and during the evening refreshments conforming to the "pink" tea, as much as possible, will be served. The ladies are planning to make the affair one of the most successful of the season, and all young people who are interested are being invited to attend.

Blood Troubles

Bad blood is the source of numerous aches and pains and the cause of nearly all stubborn, long-continued diseases. When the blood gets out of order, disease germs and poisons of various kinds find their way into the circulation and some serious trouble is the result. Rheumatism, Malaria, Old Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Anemia, and many pustular or scaly skin eruptions, like Eczema, Salt Rheum and Tetter, have their beginning in bad blood, and only a remedy that enters into the circulation and destroys the germs and poisons, can have any permanent good effect upon a disease of this character.

You can't check a blood disease by any external treatment: the sores and eruptions that appear upon the surface of the body are only manifestations or symptoms of some internal disorder that cannot be reached from the outside. S. S. S. antidotes the poisons, humors and acids that are the real cause of disease, cleanses and enriches the blood, and builds up at the same time the general health. S. S. S. invigorates all the organs and parts of the system to greater activity, and strong nerves and renewed health is the result. If you have any blood trouble, write us. No charge for medical advice.

HUNDREDS ENROLL CITY FATHERS FOR UNIVERSITY MEET.

VERY LARGE FRESHMAN CLASS IS EXPECTED THIS YEAR.

BERKELEY, August 18.—When the enrollment of upper classes closed at the State University yesterday, it was found that more than 1400 had registered for work this semester.

The freshman class promises to be extraordinarily large. Registration day does not come until next Monday, at which time admission certificates will be issued to a class of almost 700. Already there are 350 applications filed by prospective freshmen, and this is fifty in advance of last year's figures. When all students get registered, and the entire machinery of the University gets running, it is expected that there will be the same heavy enrollment that there was last year when 2400 was the total figure.

These figures do not consider the numbers who will attend the affiliated colleges across the bay. Last year the five separate professional departments had a total enrollment of 600, and the total will be probably a slight increase. If anything, for the coming year. The fall session of the Hopkins School of Design, the Hastings College of Law and the medical department started on Friday, August 12th, and the session of the college of pharmacy and the dental department comes later, the first on Monday, August 22nd, and the second on Monday, September 12th. When the full registration is totaled up, the University of California will have enrolled in all its departments the great number of 3000 students, giving to the State University an attendance equaled by only two or three universities in the country, and none west of the Rockies.

DATE FOR FIRST COLLEGE MEETING.

BERKELEY, August 19.—The first University meeting of the term will be held Monday, August 22, at 11 a. m. in Harmon Gymnasium, to welcome the class of 1905.

President Wheeler will deliver an address, and there will be announcements by various students. The singing of college songs will complete the hour.

Members of the College Glee Club will render a few selections.

All other University exercises will be suspended during this time.

THE PORTE'S ANSWER.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 18.—(Delayed in transmission.)—Minister Leishman has replied to the Porte's note. The American Minister takes note of the formal declaration of the government to accord like treatment to American citizens as to those of other powers regarding schools in Turkish territory, and expresses in his note the hope that the Porte will not raise difficulties over executing the promises. The minister's remarks are more the expression of courtesy relative to departmental formalities.

MISS ROSA McANAN OF BUTTE.

How After Two Years She Found a Remedy for Dandruff.

Miss Rosa McAnan of 211 West Quarts street, Butte, Mont., says: "Herpicide has thoroughly cleansed my scalp of dandruff, with which it was entirely covered, and it has stopped my falling hair. I have tried many different preparations in the past two years, but none took effect except Newbro's Herpicide. Dandruff is a germ disease and Herpicide is an infallible destroyer of the germ. Destroy the cause, you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ. Ask your druggist for Herpicide. It is a delightful dressing; always itching; makes the hair soft as silk. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Bowman & Co., special agents."

HAYWARDS TRUSTEES DISCUSS STREET WORK AND OTHER MATTERS.

HAYWARDS, August 18.—The regular session of the Board of Trustees was held Wednesday evening. The meeting was called to order by Chairman C. W. Hayer and Trustees Graham, Ramage and Kavanagh were present. Although very few matters of actual business were transacted at the meeting, considerable animated discussion arose as to plans which will doubtless be adopted at the next meeting. If all the items which were brought up for consideration materialize according to the present wishes of the majority of this body, it is thought that many changes, tending to enhance the interests of the citizens will be made.

CONCERNING STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

The first question which held the attention of the Board was the matter of improving Castro street. Trustee Ramage spoke in defense of this move. He drew a comparison between the excellent condition of some of the streets which had been improved by oiling, grading and macadamizing and others which had been more or less neglected in this respect and the benefits resulting therefrom were obvious to all.

No action was taken in this matter, but a special session of the executive committee will be held in a short time to further consider the matter. It is thought that at this meeting steps will be taken for the improvement of Castro and other streets.

TO INCREASE PEDDLERS' LICENSE.

The matter of increasing the peddlers' license, particularly in the case of vendors of fruit and vegetables, came in for a considerable amount of discussion.

The general sentiment of the board seemed to be in favor of increasing the license. One of the reasons advanced in favor of the measure was the fact that outside peddlers, who come into town to sell their goods have injured the business of local merchants to a considerable extent.

The City Clerk was instructed to notify the chairman of the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee to investigate the matter and report at the next meeting.

PETITION PRESENTED.

C. H. Lillibridge presented a petition signed by a space of thirty inches upon the sidewalks be granted the merchants for the display of their wares.

The paper was filed for further consideration at the next meeting.

LEAVES FOR TACOMA.

Miss Marion Stevenson left yesterday morning for Tacoma, where she will spend a month visiting friends.

IS VISITOR.

Mrs. Williams leaves a large family, some of the members being located in the East, while others reside in this State.

A daughter, Dr. Annie Williams is at present practicing her profession in this city. The remains were taken to San Jose today and the funeral was held from the First Presbyterian Church of that city.

REV. E. E. BAKER WELCOMED HOME BY FRIENDS.

Reception Held in the First Presbyterian Church Last Night.

Rev. E. E. Baker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church and his wife were welcomed home last night. The reception took place in the parlors of the church and was a large affair.

The parlors of the church had been tastefully decorated with flowers and banners under the supervision of Mrs. W. C. Price and Miss Mary McClure, and they were early filled by a happy and sociable throng.

The reception committee welcomed all comers heartily and introduced them promptly to the sociable features of the evening. It consisted of the following well known people: Mr. and Mrs. George D. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. D. Edward Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Maylin W. Upson, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Palmer, Dr. and Mrs. G. Edwin Brinkerhoff, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Milton Todd, Mrs. Mary C. Brown, Mrs. Susan Smyth, Mrs. W. I. Reine, Mrs. Elhi Hughes, Mrs. J. C. Ewing, Mrs. C. M. Budge.

The Men's League arranged the program of the evening, which consisted of several numbers of excellent high class music and a vocal interesting and instructive address.

The program began with a vocal solo by Mrs. Carrie Brown Dexter. She was followed by Alex. T. Stewart, who in his inimitable style rendered a thoroughly appreciated violin solo.

Mrs. Pamplier, the noted contralto singer, rendered a pleasing vocal solo, which gave the audience much pleasure. All these artists received hearty and enthusiastic encores. The piano accompanists were Miss Virginia De Fremery and Miss Mabel Hill. Mr. Irvin Ayres was master of ceremonies.

REV. DR. McLEAN.

Rev. Dr. McLean was the first speaker. He said: "I am glad to be here and assist in welcoming Dr. Baker back to his field of labor, to his vocation which I regard as a good and high one. As I look back to a lifetime spent in pastoral work, and consider the privileges and blessings I have enjoyed in it, I feel, honestly, that there is no work like it."

"It is true that ministers do not have all the privileges that laymen enjoy. They are forever preaching, but they rarely hear a sermon, or have anyone to point out to them the path they should follow. I hope that Dr. Baker has had the privilege of hearing the gospel frequently during his absence and that he comes back to us with ripened experience and refreshed and invigorated working capacity, for this is a time when the church needs real, earnest, practical work."

"The coming year should prove of great prosperity and progress for this church."

"Let its people remember that a church should be like a tree, ever putting forth buds and leaves of beauty, fragrance and goodness, and ever sending its roots deep down into the wells of truth for inspiration. This church has a remarkable record for worth, virtue and power. Let this record be kept white and clean, and worthy."

DR. DILLE.

Rev. Dr. Dille said: "I am pleased to be here to welcome your pastor, and I congratulate you upon his worth and services. I have known many of the past pastors of this church and I have known none more worthy than Dr. Baker. I trust that you all stand with him and for him and ready to help him in his work."

"These are strenuous times for the minister who would succeed in his work. Time was when the people had few places to go except to church, and when the minister was a great man because of his churchly authority, his robes, his cloth. Now it is different. Now there are scores of attractions besides the church and the minister cannot longer depend upon his pastoral office for a place in the public mind. He will be given just that place that he can win and earn. He can attract people to the gospel just in so far as he himself feels and knows a spirit, and no further. The time has come when ministers are judged by their work and its fruits and not by their clerical air or white necktie."

"There is no bond like that of a true pastor and a true people. Do you prove yourselves a true people, and my word for it you will have a true pastor."

Irvin Ayres, in welcoming the pastor and his wife, spoke as follows:

"If there is any significance to be attached to my being asked to say a few words at this time in behalf of the Men's League, Ladies' Aid Society, King's Daughters and other organizations of the church, it must come from what I said at the reception on the eve of Dr. Baker's departure on his vacation. I feel authorized to make a pledge on behalf of all our people to take our part in the future work of the church, and to attend its meetings and so rally around our pastor and hold up his hands."

Mineral Springs, open the year around, when it may concern. A year and three months ago I was attacked with that terrible disease, L. concolor Ataxia. Power to balance, stand or even sit down entirely lost. Two best doctors of San Francisco and Hot Springs, Ark., failed to cure me. My stomach, bowels and kidneys failed to work. I had catarrh of stomach, head and bladder as a result of the disease; these troubles became chronic. At times my head would beat like a drum, my eyes grow weak, my memory bad, my nerves wrecked. Three months ago I came to Tuscan Springs. What happened since was a pleasant surprise to me. Drink the waters, took the baths, after three weeks treatment stomach, bowels and kidneys in perfect condition, eyesight perfect, nervousness gone, memory good. After three months treatment walked without cane, with eyes closed and up and down steep hills; am cured of this dread disease, now walk with a light step. Have run scores in seventeen towns of the State of California; am well known in downtown districts of San Francisco; inquiry there will prove truth of my helplessness condition three months ago.
